EXCHANGE HOTEL,

Water street, at the head of the Steamboat Wharf,

Burlington, Vermont.

BY MOSES L. HART.

This establishment, a new hotel, and intended for the commercial and business and traveling community, is now open to the public. Post Coach-houses upon the various routes and at the Exchange Hotel for passengers, and those arriving or departing by Steam Boat, in which case their baggage is removed without charge, will find this house peculiarly to their convenience.

The lower bay-louvers, with the assurance, that in all respects the hotel shall deserve the favor and consideration of all who may patronize it.

MADAWA AND HUDSON RAIL-ROAD.

NOTICE.

For the accommodation of passengers desirous of taking the seven o'clock line of Steam Boats from Albany to New York, into operation on the 20th instant, we have engaged Mr. Hart, of this place, to run a train of Rail-Road cars, and start the Steam Train daily, at 3d stroke of the Bell, in the morning, to leave Burlington at 7 o'clock.

By this arrangement passengers may have Saratoga Springs at 3d stroke of the Bell, and return to Albany the same day, without having to wait for the next train.

The arrangement, however, will be suspended, so far as possible, during the month of October, and during the winter, the expense of running over mountain Albany or Troy. By the existing arrangement, passengers of Saratoga are obliged to leave home at 7 o'clock in the morning, to take the steam boat at Albany at 7 P.M., and via Rail-Road at 11.
